

Styx

the complete wooden nickel recordings

By the time they became an arena-filling, multi-platinum-selling sensation in the late 1970s, Styx was already a seasoned recording and touring unit with a lengthy history under its belt. The Chicago-bred quintet launched its career with a quartet of LPs — STYX, STYX II, THE SERPENT IS RISING and MAN OF MIRACLES, released between 1972 and 1974 — on the Wooden Nickel label. Those albums presented Styx as an unmistakably ambitious outfit whose eclectic output offered an American answer to the British progressive-rock movement, with hints of the accessible songcraft and rock punch that would eventually make Styx one of the world's most successful bands.

STYX: THE COMPLETE WOODEN NICKEL RECORDINGS, presents newly digitally remastered versions of all four of their Wooden Nickel albums, as well as the much sought after b-side "Unfinished Song," on a deluxe 2CD set.

Highlights from the Wooden Nickel years include the Styx classics "Lady," "Best Thing," "You Need Love," "Young Man," "Winner Takes All," "Rock & Roll Feeling," "Man Of Miracles," and the 13 minute opus "Movement For The Common Man."

The collection features detailed credits, informative essay and rare photos, making it the ideal companion to last year's best-selling COME SAIL AWAY: THE STYX ANTHOLOGY package!
